

PROGRAM

5 November, 2015

Ernst Moritz Arndt University, Main Building
(Domstrasse 5, 17487 Greifswald)

9.00–9.30 – opening of the conference

9.30–11.45 – session I – HUMINT: Methods, Networks and Secrets

chair: Douglas Selvage (Federal Commissioner for the Records of the State Security of the former GDR, Germany)

- John Buckley (School of Law and Justice, Edith Cowan University, Australia / Great Britain), Neither interest nor understanding: The failure of the academic community in the management of human sources
- Mark Kramer (Harvard University, USA), The Soviet Union's recruitment of spies in the United States, 1928–1953
- Jacek Tebinka (Gdańsk University, Poland), Soviet secrets on Poland from the Mitrokhin archives
- Erik Kulavig (University of Southern Denmark, Denmark), Can you make a Dane out of a Russian?
- Bernd Schaefer (Woodrow Wilson International Center, USA), Successful KGB penetration of the BND: The Heinz Falge case from the CIA perspective
- discussion

11.45–12.15 – coffee break

12.15–14.15 – session II – Under Legal Cover

chair: Władysław Bułhak

(Institute of National Remembrance, Poland)

- Robert Oldach (Ernst Moritz Arndt University of Greifswald, Germany), Legal resident of the German army in the Baltic Sea region
- Peer Henrik Hansen (Cold War Museum Langelandsfort, Denmark), Racing and spying: Legal travelers behind the Iron Curtain
- Magdolna Baráth (Historical Archives of the Hungarian State Security, Hungary), Intelligence officers under diplomatic covering
- Wanda Jarzabek (Institute of Political Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences, Poland), Foreign correspondents and intelligence: A case study in activity of Polish correspondents aboard and foreign correspondents in Poland
- discussion

14.15–16.00 – lunch break

16.00–18.00 – session III – Human Cases

chair: Shlomo Shpiro (Bar-Ilan University, Israel)

- Przemysław Gasztold-Seń (Institute of National Remembrance, Poland), “He’s not a Polish patriot”. Polish military intelligence efforts to recruit Pakistani air commodore Władysław Turowicz
- Isabella Ginor and Gideon Remez (Truman Institute, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel), Israel’s best spy or a master double agent? New light from the Soviet angle on the mystery of Ashraf Marwan
- Philipp Lesiak (Ludwig Boltzmann Institute, Austria), Times of exposure. After Ladislav Bittman’s defection: Insights into the main espionage scandals of the Second Austrian Republic
- Cees Wiebes (Ad de Jonge Center for Intelligence and Security Studies Institute, University of Amsterdam, Netherlands), Manned balloons launched from Scandinavia over Poland and the Baltic states
- discussion

6 November, 2015

Ernst Moritz Arndt University, Main Building
(Domstrasse 5, 17487 Greifswald)

9.00–11.00 – session IV – Leadership: Decisions and Perception

chair: Thomas Stamm-Kuhlmann

(Ernst Moritz Arndt University of Greifswald, Germany)

- Kurt Jensen (Carleton University, Department of Political Science, Canada), Preparing for intelligence leadership
- Patryk Pleskot (Institute of National Remembrance, Poland), Political science in intelligence studies: Decision-making theories as a key to understand secret services' activities
- Sumaia Al-Kohlani (University of Sharjah, United Arab Emirates), How public opinion on terrorism and counterterrorism determine the success and failure of intelligence
- Michael Fredholm (Stockholm International Program for Central Asian Studies, Sweden), From scientific methods to personal information management: How the human element in Swedish intelligence moved from the age of enlightenment into the XXI century
- discussion

11.00–11.30 – coffee break

11.30–13.00 – session V – Intelligence in Exile

chair: Svend Gottschalk Rasmussen

(University of Southern Denmark, Denmark)

- Daniel Běloušek (Ministry of Defense of the Czech Republic, Department of Veterans Affairs, Czech Republic), The Czechoslovak Intelligence Office during the years 1949–1957: Operational recruitment method called “white lines”
- Sławomir Łukasiewicz (Institute of National Remembrance, Poland), Polish Communist military intelligence against Polish Cold War exile in the West before 1950: Selected aspects

- Cecilia Notini Burch (Department of War Studies, King's College London, United Kingdom), The taxonomy of threat: Intelligence analysis and surveillance of foreigners in Cold War Sweden
- discussion

13.00–15.00 – lunch break

15.00–17.00 – open session – Intelligence Studies Today

Audience Room 5 (Hörsaal), Auditorium Maximum (Heinrich Rubenow Strasse 3, 17487 Greifswald)

chair: Jens E. Olesen

(Ernst Moritz Arndt University of Greifswald, Germany)

- Helmut Müller-Enbergs (University of Southern Denmark, Denmark / Germany), HUMINT in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern
- Michael Andregg (University of St. Thomas, USA), The US decision to invade Iraq in March 2003, chasing phantom WMDs: How human intelligence was used, abused and politicized to “fix the facts around the policy”
- Benjamin Fischer (USA), Comments on a spy named Tokachev
- Łukasz Kamiński (Institute of National Remembrance, Poland), Overcoming the past: Communism, state security and vetting in Poland
- Thomas Wegener Friis (University of Southern Denmark, Denmark), The class struggle never stops. A Danish journalist against the Federal Republic of Germany
- discussion